Sub : Rejoinder on news item published in the Assomiya Pratidin” Raijyoot Sobbishghontat Punar Pran Gol Pasjonor.”

Sir,

The above referred news published in the Asomiya Pratidin to day has come to our notice and Health & Family Welfare department, Govt. of Assam denies the allegation that Health & FW Department has not taken any preventive & curative measure against the outbreak of JE/AES.

There has been 25th death case reported on 15th July, 2015 till (4 Pm) out of 25th death cases all cases are non Vaccinated through JE Vaccination Programme was taken by the departmentally in all the district.

All types of preventive measures like JE Vaccination Programme, IEC activities etc has been done. This year comparatively JE cases are less than the previous year. As per records 224 JE cases are detected as on 15/7/2014 & 29 death cases were reported .But trhis year total confirm JE cases is 175 & total death reported is 25 cases in the same time.

Initiatives taken for control of JE

- Dedicated beds are ensured to be kept for JE case management at District Hospitals.
- Awareness activities with the help of PRI members have been be geared up.
- CDPOs have been involved actively for dissemination of messages
- PHED have been involved for supply of safe drinking water.

Steps for Fogging Operation inclusive Municipal Corporation

- Fogging Operation is being carried out in all the endemic and affected districts so far. Necessary fund to carry out fogging operation has been placed with the districts. A to tal of 156 nos of Fogging Machine has been put into operation.

Elisa Readers –Sentinel Laboratorrv.

- Elisa readers for the detection of JE cases have been already been sent to the endemic districts. The Government of India has been requested to provide sufficient quantity of Diagnostic Kits.
- Impregnation of community own bednet Programme is started in the state. Total 38931 no community owned bed nets are already impregnated.

The Health & Family Welfare Department is always commuted to words providing Health Care Services to the people & combating of JE of outmost priority.

You are requested to published the rejoinder in your daily news paper for the interest of public Service

Yours faithfully

Joint Director of Health Services (M), cum
State Programme Officer, NVBDCP, Assam
